Gentleness Is Beautiful

Gentleness is beautiful in the eyes of God
above,
Gentleness is being kind and showing children love.

God made each and every child special and unique,
And each one of those children need kisses on their cheek.

Each child is a blessing from our Father up
above.
Although they all belong to Him they're here for us to love.

When troubles rise before us the best thing we can do.
Is get down on our knees and God will help us through.

To be understanding parents we must spend time in prayer.
That is what God wants from us to show our kids we care.

Each one of our children has so much to give.
Though their young in years they can teach us how to live.

We thank God for our children no matter what they do.
We love them and protect them each day
through and through.

On those times when we feel weak cause things are going wrong,
God wants us to lean on Him and He will make us strong.

Children all need gentle hearts to teach them
all their days,
And parents who will turn to God and follow all
His ways.

Each child is so special, they're gifts from the Lord,

The love they give back to us is our best reward.

A gentle touch is beautiful in the eyes of God
above,
He looks down on us and smiles when we show
children love.
